On-Going Associate Formation - from theory to practice

A Professional Development Workshop
for Associate Directors

February 25-27, 2011

North American Conference of Associates and Religious

Program Overview

Many Associates have been traveling together for some time. Still hungry to deepen and strengthen their commitment and to examine and expand their lived experience they look for opportunities for ongoing formation. In order to effectively respond to these deep yearnings, we need to ask:

1. Where is it that our seasoned associates continue to hear the call?
2. How can we strengthen our on-going relationship?
3. What intentional strategies can we develop that will continue to nurture & support these experienced associates as they journey?

Using a Scripture based, reflective and collaborative approach, this workshop explores seven important steps in the continued engagement and on-going formation of experienced associates.

As each of the steps is considered, participants will have an opportunity to:

- pray with scripture;
- examine current practice;
- share ideas;
- identify common concerns;
- explore creative solutions;
- become energized and
- return home with practical possibilities.

“If I send them away hungry to their homes they will faint on the way and some of them have come from a great distance.” Mark 8:3
